There has been a little flurry in Washington social circles, all because Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page have given a dance for their daughters to which not one foreign diplomat was invited. Such a thing was never heard of before, and it is asked why Mrs. Page has ignored the popular diplomat, Mr. and Mrs. Page are thoroughly American. They are not in official life, and having nothing to gain by the cultivation of politicians and diplomats, they are quite free to follow their own individual tastes in regard to friends. It has been observed by those of long experience in Washington society that, in the many homes where foreigners are made much of. American young neen stay away. The unmarried secretaries and attaches of the embassies and legations are much sought guests. They are, as a rule, good dancers and interesting conversationalists, and society is ever ready to make allowances for any social shortcomings on their part. for any social shortcomings on their

The debutante soon learns that she must make her choice between the young diplomats and her own countrymen, and to the present time the diplomats have had a shade the best of it. The American young men at the capital are in ecstacles over the stand taken by Mr. and Mrs. Page, and it is said that the eligible bachelors in the diplomatic corps are in great wonderment over their exclusion from the Page dance. It is a unique experience for them. It has been intimated that one of Mrs. Page's objections to the young foreigners is that they are not diligent enough in showing their appreciation of the constant social flowers showered upon them. Whatever her reasons may be, her stand of "America for Americans" is being quite generally applauded.

Prince Cupid, the Hawaiian delegate-elect, is practical in his ideas of civil service reform, as witness the following notice published by him in the Hawaiian newspapers:

Desiring that my nominations to the bureau of navigation, navy department, for the position of midshipman from our territory shalf be of the very best available, I hereby invite the application of any young man who believes he can pass the examination. The eligibility is from 15 to 20 years. By calling at my seice he or they will be further than the programme.

Prior to the departure of the party a flag was presented to the commission which had been made by Miss Agnes Treudt. It will probably be used to mark the site of the Utah state building, which is to be selected by the commission while in St. Louis. To obviate the necessity of a second trip east for that special purpose, the cornerstone will likely be laid on May 3 or 4. If it is not possible to set a regular stone, a dummy will be used.

Programme.

Professor Harmel Pratt gave a recital of his piano pupils at his studio in the St. James hotel last evening. The special features of the evening were the duets rendered by Misses Sarah and Jane Wilson and the duet overture, "Poet and Peasant," by Henverture, "P Sarah and Jane Wilson and the decoverture, "Poet and Peasant," by Henry and Marionne Oberndorfer. Two studies of "Heller" were well played by little Henry Oberndorfer. Master Robert Wilson played "The American Beauty" march with refreshing vim. Miss Sarah Wilson played the Krouse mazurka well and Miss Tessie Smith executed the "Flatterer" with excellent taste. Harmfel L. Pratt closed the programme with a beautiful rendition of Beethoven's sonata Op. 13, first and second movements. Professor Pratt was assisted by Miss Ada Pratt and Miss Owen, both of whom pleased the guests with well rendered vocal selections. The studio was crowded.

Taken From Safe.

Washington, April 25.—Attorneys Perry and Michener, counsel for General and Mrs. Tyner this afternoon submitted to Postmaster General Payne papers purporting to be the ones taken from the safe in the department by Mrs. Tyner last Tuesday. Mr. Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristov, who has charge of the investigation, scanned them. The conference lasted two hours and at its conclusion General Tyner's counsel gave out a statement saying that by the directions of the postmaster general, all the papers were returned to General Tyner except those which referred to the conduc of a former inspector of the department, now dead, which the lawyers said had not been opened, and the matter had been disposed of four years ago. Assistant Attorney General Christiancy also made public a letter written by him to Postmaster General Payne today, asking a thorough investigation of his actions and official conduct, and asking that he be relieved of the responsibilities of his office pending the investigation. bilities of his office pending the investigation.

There were but seven machinists who responded to the call, but the Keswick strikers are joyful in the fact that the American Federation of Labor has interested itself in their cause, and predict that it will result in other severe blows to the company. Justice Strong today held six of the seventeen strikers charged with riot at Keswick station on March 27 to answer to the superior court. Eleven others were dismissed yester-

TAX ON MARCUS DALY'S ESTATE IN NEW YORK

New York, April 25.—The estate of Marcus Daly, who died in 1900, has been appraised by the appraiser appointed by the surrogate for the assessment of the inheritance tax, and his report shows that Mr. Daly left personal property in this state of the value of $1,450,437. Mr. Daly's will was probated in Montana, where the bulk of his property is situated, and his entire property is valued at $11,000,000.

The rapidity with which the old bonds have been turned in since the secretary's offer one month ago is a surprise even to the officials, who now express the belief that the whole amount which the secretary offered to take, $100,000,000, will be refunded within the next few weeks.

JUSTIFICATION FOR STOPPING QUESTIONABLE LAND ENTRIES

Washington, April 25.—The secretary of the interior is beginning to receive reports on the suspension of timber and stone land entries in California, Oregon and Washington, and so far as they go they confirm the wisdom of the order of suspection, which was made last fall. There is a thorough conviction on the part of the officials of the interior department that many, if not most, of the entries under the timber act which were made in the Pacific coast states during the year 1902 were made in the interest of syndicates, and the protests received since the insuance of the order strengthen of three moaths.
